

THE COTT INN DARTINGTON

To all our loyal customers and friends

It's with great sadness that we have no choice but to close The Cott for the time being.

This is for the safety of our staff and customers. It's impossible to know when this terrible situation will get better, but when it's safe we'll be back!

At the moment we're in the process of developing a takeaway service, hopefully with delivery if we can do it.

We're also getting our garden ready so we can open up the garden kitchen once the weather warms up, offering an al fresco menu to take away or hopefully eat outside.

We really can't wait to welcome you all back to The Cott in future happier and healthier times.

Sending you our love, best wishes and thanks for your support over the years,

Hoping to see you again soon
